First Holy Communion

Today we welcome to St Paul's at 12 noon the children from second class in St Colman's receiving their first Holy Communion. In the Cathedral at 11am the children from Christ the King Group (Children of Catholic parents attending Educate Together and All Saint's) will receive the sacrament. At 12.30pm the children from Gaelscoil an Mhuilinn will receive their First Holy Communion. We hope all the children and their families have a great day and We congratulate all the children who received their First Communion last week from St Colmcille's and St. Kenny's.

Please note:

Due to First Holy Communion at the 12 noon Mass next Sunday for Curraghmore School in St Paul's Church, an extra Vigil Mass will be celebrated next Saturday evening in St Paul's at 7pm. This has been added to our schedule to accommodate parishioners. This is the last of the ceremonies in St. Paul's.

National Collection for the Eucharistic Congress

Make a contribution to today's special offertory collection in support of the Congress. The Congress organisers have specifically chosen not to seek the kind of state support that a large event of this kind would normally attract, because the economic circumstances of the times suggest that state funding is needed to support the sick, the homeless and the education of our children. For that reason, the Congress really depends on the contributions of men and women of faith in order to make its contribution to renewal. Thank you for your generous support for the Congress today and in previous years.

May—Month of Our Lady

During May Catholics remember our Lady. It is a traditional month to pray the Rosary.

The parish is busy at the moment with preparations for the Congress.

A lovely array of children's art work is on display in the Cathedral.

Next weekend at Sunday masses our priests will talk about the congress.

At the 6pm Vigil Mass next Saturday the 1932 Congress will be recalled. People who attended this congress are especially welcome. If any parishioners hold memorabilia from that time we would appreciate the loan of it for display. Items can be left into the Parish office before 4pm next Friday. Thanking you.

To mark the beginning of the Congress Mass will be celebrated in the Town Centre on Sunday June 10th, the feast of Corpus Christi. The Mass will take place at 11am on Pearse Street followed by Eucharistic procession through the town leading to Benediction in the Cathedral Grounds.

The Parish of Mullingar invites you to join us on one of our selected day visits to the 50th International Congress at the RDS and Croke Park, 10th – 17th June. We see it as an enriching and rewarding day, catering for all, whether attending the formal programmes of guest speakers or the informality of strolling through the various displays, exhibitions, and concerts. It will be an occasion made all the more special with visitors from all over the world. Experience and enjoy the uniqueness of the atmosphere. Bus and ticket cost p30 with full information from the Cathedral Shop or parish office 9348338.

Pilgrimage to Compostella Four places remain for the pilgrimage to Compostella in Northern Spain (Sept 6-13th). A group from Mullingar will retrace the steps of the Mullingar friars who walked the Camino hundreds of years ago. The group hope to walk the last 110km stage of the pilgrim road over seven days. A bus will transfer pilgrims bags each day. For an information/booking contact group leader Mary W
