List of the Dead

Altar Lists of the Dead are now available in the churches. The names sent to us of all who have died are collected and Masses are offered for those who make up the Parish List. Please place your list and offering in an envelope with your name and address. All Masses today and on First Fridays during the coming year are offered for those whose names you record on your list.

Some things we can do in November

- ◇ Attend an additional weekday Mass in remembrance of the dead and those who mourn.
- ◇ Visit the Cemetery and pray for those we love.
- ◇ Go to confession (Saturdays at 2.30pm)
- ◇ Complete the Parish List of the Dead
- ◇ Say some family prayers together
- ◇ Fast in some way (e.g. fizzy drinks, desserts, cigarettes)
- ◇ Abstain from alcohol. (Month's Pledge to Sacred Heart of Jesus)

Next Thursday is the feast of All the Saints of Ireland.

The different schools of Christian spirituality share in the living tradition of prayer and are essential guides for us.

Safeguarding in our Parish

Next weekend we will be highlighting the work done by the Safeguarding Children Team in our parish. We will acknowledge the children and young people of our parish and the volunteers who assist them in various activities, including altar servers, choir members, children's liturgy etc. The diocesan safeguarding policy is available at www.meathsafeguarding.ie. Our parish policy can be obtained from the parish office.

Continuing Mullingar Presentation Sisters story in the build up to Presentation Day on November 21.

The Famine years of 1846-47 were dark and sad years. The people of Mullingar remembered the self-sacrificing Presentation Sisters who fed many children daily at the convent. Funds for this work of charity were provided by the Hevey Trust Fund and Bishop Cantwell. In 1850 the sisters answered the call of the missions. Presentation Sisters from Maynooth and Rahan were already in India since 1843. They invited the Mullingar sisters to join them in Madras to teach in the schools. Srs Ignatius Murphy, Bernard Grey and Xavier Flattery answered this call and left Mullingar on the 8th September 1850. Twelve sisters from Mullingar went on Mission to India between 1850—1900. They are interred there. A plaque in the sisters cemetery in Mullingar pays tribute to them, may they rest in peace.

On Friday 21st November at 1pm, Bishop Smith will celebrate Mass in the Cathedral to commemorate the departure of the Presentation Sisters from Mullingar.
