Bereavement Mass

The Annual Mass for parishioners who died during the past year takes place on Wednesday evening at 7.30pm in the Cathedral. All are welcome.

During November we pray for all on our Parish List of the Dead, family members, friends and all the Holy Souls. You can complete your List of the Dead and return it to the box in the Cathedral.

Vocations to the Priesthood

A calendar for 2016 has been prepared by the Diocesan Vocations Committee, featuring a number of priests from the Diocese of Meath, including Bishop Smith and our new curate Fr Robert McGivney. The calendar is now on sale in the Cathedral shop. Fr Robert, who will be with us from next month, also features in a new promotional video for vocations, which is available at www.dioceseofmeath.ie/vocations. Please check it out.

If you are considering a vocation to the priesthood, you can contact Fr Joe Campbell (frjoecampbell@gmail.com) or Fr Shane Crombie (frshane@gmail.com).

Feast of Christ the King next Sunday is our parish feast day. It is the final Sunday of the Church year.

Remembrance Mass for Garda Tony Golden takes place in the Cathedral next Sunday at 12.30pm.

This weekend we pray for all who have died or been injured on our roads and we pray also for their families. There are many roadside memorials around our parish. If you see one which is neglected, perhaps you might tidy around it.

Confirmation Class for children & parents on the Parish Programme in St Paul's today during and after 10.30am Mass

We welcome these children who were recently baptised: Caoimhe Lee, Ardleigh Vale; Scott Doyle, Canal Avenue; Jack McCormack, Grange Park.

A meeting of the Ministers of Holy Communion will take place on Thursday 26 November at 7.30pm in the Parish Community Centre. All Ministers from the Cathedral (weekend and weekday Masses) are expected to attend.

Holy Land Pilgrimage August 2016

Fr Padraig is considering leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land in association with MAP Travel in early August 2016 to celebrate the Year of Mercy. So far 15 people have expressed interest, a minimum of 20 people are needed to proceed. No commitment is required yet, however if you are interested please contact Fr Padraig at the Parish Office 9348338.

The Pope and Homeless

Pope Francis has given an interview to "The Big Issue", a well-known magazine sold to aid the homeless. The interview highlights the Pope's concern for people who live on the streets. In the article, the Pope says: "I do not know if we will be able to make a world without poverty, because sin is always there and leads to selfishness. But we must always fight to make the world a better place for everyone".

Synod on the Family

Over recent months, we took up the Pope's invitation to pray for the Synod on the Family and to reflect on the theme of Christian family life. The Synod concluded last month. We can look forward to the Pope's message which he will issue in due course, based on his reflection upon what was shared during the Synod.

Reaching out in times of distress

We have been asked to inform you that a voluntary group in the locality is willing to accompany people who are facing legal proceedings relating to repayments on the family home. You will be treated with compassion, courtesy and complete confidentiality. For further information, phone 089 246 9827. Copies of "Waiting for the Sheriff" by Tom Darcy are available from the Cathedral Shop.

*Now thank we all our God,
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms
hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.*

*All praise and thanks to God
the Father now be given;
the Son, and him who reigns
with them in highest heaven;
the one eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.*

Best wishes to our Cathedral Choristers who will be taking part in Pueri Cantores in Maynooth College Chapel next Saturday. Good luck boys!
