Praying for our loved ones...

A Remembrance Mass for those who died during the year will take place this Monday evening at 7.30pm in the Cathedral. All parishioners are invited to attend and we especially welcome the families in the parish who have lost a loved one during the past year. Jonathan Irwin will be the guest speaker reflecting on loss. A display is set up in the Cathedral calling to mind the 150 names of those who died in the past 12 months.

Ar dhéis Dé na naimeacha go léir.

Today is designated as 'The World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims' and their families. Prayers will be offered in our parish this weekend.

We are coming towards the end of November if you have not already compiled your List of the Dead for inclusion in parish masses please do so in the coming week.

Thanking our Volunteers

We invite all our regular weekend helpers from the following churches -

Cathedral, St Paul's, Walshestown,

Brotentown & Gainstown

to

Mass next Saturday 24th November

at 6pm in the Cathedral

followed by a light supper in the Parish Community Centre

The groups invited include:

Ministers of the Word, Ministers of Holy Communion, Stewards, Sacristans, Flower Groups, Children's Liturgy, St Paul's Choir & Cathedral Cleaning Group

Grandparents Night in the Cathedral

Máire Printer, National President of the Irish Catholic Grandparent's Association, will speak in the Cathedral on Wednesday evening next at 7pm. Marie will talk about the importance of the role of grandparents in supporting parents and children. The short ceremony is open to everyone but if you are a grandparent you are most especially welcome. Grandchildren are also very welcome.

Note to Grandchildren!

Wednesday 21st November is a day when we are going to pray for our grandparents.

When you get a chance write a little prayer in thanksgiving for them and ask mum or dad to let you drop it into the special box of prayers in the Cathedral side altar named after Jesus' grandparents (Joachim and Anne).

Parish Catechists

A team of catechists (priests and lay people) will visit our parish during the coming days to support the work of our teachers in our parish schools. We thank the teachers for delivering the Alive O programme. Thanks also to all the parents who are attentive to religion and its importance in their children's lives.

Hevey Institute

The newly refurbished Hevey building was opened by Bishop Michael on Friday. New Management Structures giving the parish a greater role in the running of both CBS primary and Colaiste Mhuire are being phased in in the coming years. We wish the teachers and students all the best in the beautifully restored Hevey Building.

Advent at the Cathedral Shop

The popular St Paul Missal with all the Sunday readings for the coming year is now available. Advent booklets, candles, Diaries and 2013 calendars with scripture quotes and inspirational thoughts are also on sale in the Cathedral Shop.

Next Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King - our parish feast day. The Cathedral was the first church to receive the title from Pope Pius XI in 1936. It is the final Sunday of the Church year and is a fitting and uplifting feast to conclude the calendar year. Hail Redeemer, King Divine...
