From Pope Francis' Message for Mission Sunday

The proclamation of the Gospel is part of being disciples of Christ and it is a constant commitment that animates the whole life of the Church. "The missionary outreach is a clear sign of the maturity of an ecclesial community" Each community is "mature" when it professes faith, celebrates it with joy during the liturgy, lives charity, proclaims the Word of God endlessly, leaves ones own to take it to the "suburbs", especially to those who have not yet had the opportunity to know Christ. The strength of our faith, at a personal and community level, can be measured by the ability to communicate it to others, to spread and live it in charity, to witness it to those we meet and share the path of life with us.

Apostolic Work Society, Each year the society works generously to make vestments and supply altar linen and Mass kits for missionary societies around the world. To see some of this work you can visit the Parish Community Centre today from 11am.

Congratulations to the children from St Kenny's school who organised a 'Bring and Buy' sale for the Missions, they raised a total of €1,500. Well done!

The offertory collection this weekend will be our annual contribution to the Propagation of the Faith.

Next Friday Bishop Smith will celebrate Mass in the Cathedral at 1.30pm, with the staff, pupils and sisters of Loreto College. After Mass, the Bishop will bless the new school facilities, which will be opened by the Loreto Provincial Leader, Sr Noel Corscadden. On this mission weekend, we recognise the continued good work of the Loreto mission in witnessing to the Gospel in our community

This weekend we welcome to the Cathedral and Gainstown Church the children and parents from Gaelscoil an Mhuilinn and St Colmcille's schools who formally begin their journey towards First Holy Communion in 2014.

We congratulate Tony Quinn on his many years of service with An Garda Síochána and we wish him well in his retirement.

These children were baptised last Sunday:

Josh McDonnell, Hillside Drive; Aoibh Graham, Greenpark Meadows; Aileen Keena, Lakepoint; Cathaill Leech, Dalton Park.

List of the Dead

As we approach November and the end of the Church year our focus begins to turn towards remembering and praying for the dead. We remember our Dead when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead so that they can be prayed for at Mass to help them attain their eternal rest. List of the Dead envelopes are in your box of envelopes or will be available in the Cathedral and St. Paul's. Masses on First Fridays during the year and on All Souls Day are offered for the Parish List of the Dead.

Congratulations to St Loman's on their first senior championship in 50 years. Best wishes to St O liver Plunkett's in the hurling decider.

Rest in Peace
