First Holy Communion

This weekend we begin the first of our nine celebrations of First Holy Communion in the parish. Today we welcome to the Cathedral at 11am the children from Gaelscoil an Choillín who will receive First Holy Communion. This Mass will be celebrated in Irish.

Next Sunday 29th April, the children from St Kenny's School will receive First Holy Communion in the Cathedral at 11am and the children from St Colmcille's School will receive First Holy Communion in Gainstown Church at 11am.

Due to the celebration of First Holy Communion on Sundays in the coming weeks, some extra Vigil Masses have been added to our schedule to accommodate parishioners; in Gainstown Church next Saturday evening 28th April at 7pm and on Saturday 5th May & Saturday 12th May there will be extra Vigil Masses in St Paul's Church at 7pm.

Mass & Sacrament of the Sick Wednesday 25th April, St Paul's, 3pm

This year's celebration will take place in St Paul's Church as part of our Silver Jubilee programme. Those who are sick or infirm are especially welcome to this Mass and to receive the Sacrament of the Sick. We would be very grateful for the help of family members and neighbours in bringing people to this celebration.

Saturday 5 May - Mass of Remembrance at 10am in the Cathedral for babies and young children who have died in our parish. This is an opportunity to prayerfully support parents whose children have died circumstances of miscarriage, stillbirth or in infancy. Please leave names for inclusion in this Mass into the parish office.
